Sweet Wines

Royal Tokaji Focus

Hungary

For Tokaj, the 2008 vintage was a golden year.

A chilly September saw enough rain for the development of the essential noble rot and October then stepped up with a superb Indian summer. The grapes were then granted a long, indulgent hang time which is ideal for phenolic ripeness.

2008	Birsalmás, Single Vineyard, Second Growth	£ 470
	Loess-clay mixed top soil which provides a minty and elegant scent with a long-lasting fruity flavour and a hint of quince, honey and peaches.
2008	Nyulászó, Single Vineyard, First Growth	£ 470
	Brown forest soil with some brown volcanic clay. The vineyard produces lively, elegant and highly-perfumed wines with incredible complexity.
2008	Szt. Tamás, Single Vineyard, First Growth	£ 470
	Now the most valuable vineyard land in Tokaj. Stony, rich, red tinged clay topsoil. The vineyard gives great minerality and structure to the wine.
2008	Mézes Mály, Single Vineyard, Great First Growth	£ 470
	Translating as 'honey pot'. The loess topsoil of the vineyard gives a lovely honey-like, floral character to the wine. For centuries regarded as the finest vineyard in Tokaj.
2008	6 Puttonyos Aszú, Gold Label	£ 470
	A blend from Royal Tokaji's superbly located single vineyards. The first thing you'll notice on the palate, despite the luscious sweetness, is a core of uplifting and vibrant acidity that contradicts the 189g/litre of residual sugar.
